RACING TO-DAY LIKE AQUATIC SPORTS.

RESCUER RIMS IN HIS OLD-TIME FORM

Race with Hurst Park Is Won by Hero of Last Year's Suburban After Beautiful Struggle, Which Was Easily the Feature at Gravesend.

Favorites Won the Majority of the Races and Talent Fared Well—Ashtarita, Cock Robin, Wotan, Schulamite and Voladay the Winners.

The feature at Gravesend this afternoon was not the Criterion Stakes, but the meeting between Africander and Hurst Park. The talent were evenly divided on the question of the superiority of the pair. One moment Africander would be a slight choice and then there would be a rush on Hurst Park. The latter finally went to the post a slight favorite.

In the first quarter Africander and stretch Odum sent Hurst Park to the front and Africander at once accepted the challenge. It was a beautiful race from that point to the stretch, the horses racing stride for stride. When they made the home turn Africander drew away and this pressed Odum to the whip.

Odum gave Hurst Park a terrific grueling all through the last quarter, but he did not yield. The hero of last year's Suburban was in his old form, and clinging to his lead with a bulldog's tenacity and courage that made him famous last year, he won by a length and a half from his rival. The excitement of the struggle between the two rivals, the interest in the lengths in the race.

Schulamite, a mud-running wonder, won the Criterion Stakes in the easiest fashion possible. Bellatrix, who opened favorite, was not placed. The crowd raised a gallant in the mud. Schulamite was heavily backed.

The story that Sheephead Bay was to raise the price of admission to $3 is authoritatively denied.

Ashtarita was well backed. Ashtarita was a warm favorite in the first race and went to the post at 11 to 1, after being backed from 3 to 1. She went to the front at the start and making all the running won very easily by a length from her rival. Dapple Gold, a 9 to 1 shot, was third and three-quarters.

Thistle Feather was badly kicked while at the post and was withdrawn.

Cock Robin and Walter Cleary went to the post even favorites in the second race. The event was a two-horse affair. Walter Cleary made the running to the end and was the winner by a half length. He was backed from 3 to 1.

Wotan won by twelve lengths. Wotan was a 2 to 1 shot in the third, and he won like the real thing. That is, he broke to the front at the far turn and outdistanced the others and was three lengths in front of Palm Bearer, who beat Schulamite.

Schulamite won easily. Schulamite opened up a hot favorite in the fourth race.

Voladay was a 2 to 1 shot in the third, and he won like the real thing. That is, he broke to the front at the far turn and outdistanced the others and was three lengths in front of Palm Bearer, who beat Schulamite.

Schulamite won easily. Schulamite opened up a hot favorite in the fourth race.

Voladay was a 2 to 1 shot in the third, and he won like the real thing. That is, he broke to the front at the far turn and outdistanced the others and was three lengths in front of Palm Bearer, who beat Schulamite.

Schulamite won easily. Schulamite opened up a hot favorite in the fourth race.

ELIAS WOMAN IS NOW SEEKING TO MAKE TERMS

The Negress Who Blackmailed John R. Platt Out of Nearly $700,000 States Through Her Attorney the Conditions Under Which She Will Submit to Arrest.

DEMANDS THAT MONEY TIED UP BY SUITS BE RELEASED AT ONCE.

Mr. Platt is Kept at Home Closely Guarded Because His Relatives Do Not Wish Him to Make Any Further Revelations About the Scandal.

Mrs. Hannah Elias, through her attorney, Washington Brauns, No. 99 Nassau street, agreed late this afternoon to submit to arrest and to the service of papers on her in John R. Platt's suit for the recovery of the fortune which he says she obtained from him by blackmail, on condition that Mr. Platt's attorneys withdraw the injunction proceedings which have tied up all the money she has in savings banks, national banks and trust companies in this city.

Mrs. Elias contends that the injunction proceedings deprive her of the money on which she depends to pay her running expenses. She maintains that as long as her money is tied up she is unable to purchase the necessities of life, and she will not consent to aid her opponents in the civil proceedings unless they release her funds.

ONLY ONE HITCH, SAYS LAWYER. "The only hitch in the negotiations," said Mr. Brauns this afternoon "is this matter of tying up Mrs. Elias's money. I will not consent to the arrest of Mrs. Elias or the service of papers on her until this proceeding is stopped. If Mr. Warren will release her money I will see that the order of arrest is served and that the $200,000 bail is furnished."

"Meanwhile I have investigated this order of arrest and find that it was issued on information and belief that Mrs. Elias was about to leave the city. I am trying to find out who swore to such an affidavit, and when I do find out there will be trouble for some one. Mrs. Elias has never had any idea of leaving the city. She has no reason to flee. We do not fear criminal proceedings, depend upon that."

"Mr. Nanz is the attorney of record for Mrs. Elias in her divorce proceedings. I called to see Mr. Rand at the District-Attorney's office to-day, but could not see him. There are some things I would like to call the attention of the criminal authorities to in this matter. It will be seen then that this matter is not all one-sided. I will explain my meaning at some later time."

It was reported this afternoon that Mrs. Elias was at the District-Attorney's office, but Mr. Jerome's assistants said there was no truth in the rumor.

MR. PLATT UNDER GUARD. John R. Platt is practically a prisoner in his house at No. 7 East Fifty-fourth street to-day, kept so by the members of his family because of the remarkable interview which he gave out to the newspapers yesterday.

The family believed that it had surrounded the old man with every safeguard, and that it would be impossible for anybody to get close enough to him to ask questions. Even the engineer of the building at No. 14 Church street, where Mr. Platt has an office, was instructed to throw anybody out of the building who attempted to talk to him, but in spite of this Mr. Platt found an opportunity to relieve his over-burdened mind and took the public
